Invitation to Become an Exhibitor or a Sponsor

2009 InsideNGO Annual Meeting

July 27-28 – Finance, Grants and Contracts Meeting

July 29 – Cross Operations Day (only Sponsorship available)

July 30-31 – Human Resources (HR) Meeting

George Washington University, Marvin Center
800 21st Street, NW, Washington, DC

An Opportunity to let our Members Learn about YOU

InsideNGO's Annual Meeting in July will bring together the Finance, Grants and Contracts, Technology, Legal, and the Human Resources (HR) professionals from InsideNGO's member base of over 245 organizations from the international relief and development community. Go to www.INSIDEngo.org for a list of our members.

We invite you to consider the opportunity to become an Exhibitor or a Sponsor or both for the operational area that best aligns with your product or service. (Only sponsorship is available on the Cross Operations Day (July 29); there will be no exhibits on that day.)

Benefits of being an Exhibitor – 2 types: (Staffed: 6x6 space with table in Exhibit Room-up to 2 company representatives; acknowledgment in attendee packets. Materials Only: Your materials laid out for attendees to pick up.)

- Receive maximum exposure and build name recognition. The Exhibit room will house morning and afternoon breaks and the luncheon buffet to give attendees easy access and frequent opportunities to visit you. You and/or your information will be available to all attendees, and you will be acknowledged in attendee packets.
- Reach a targeted audience. Speak one-on-one with decision makers.

Benefits of Sponsorship – several types available: (Sponsor a break, lunch, cocktail party or be a General Sponsor)

- Build name recognition and gain visibility for you company. You will be acknowledged in attendee packets as well as during the specific event you sponsor.
- Reach a targeted audience.

If you would like more information about becoming an exhibitor or sponsor, please contact Bonnie Ricci at 202-684-3680 or bricci@INSIDEngo.org.
